

TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND CODE OF ETHICS OF DXN INTERNATIONAL

All Members are legally classified as "Distributors" although there is no obligation to actually distribute products.

These rules are for the protection of members and the businesses they may create.

This document is an overview of 'DXN Distributorship Rules and Regulations'

1. The applicant should be 18 years old and above.
2. A person may not sponsor their spouse; a married couple may not join as separate members under the same or different upline.
3. Membership may be refused or terminated if an applicant is directly or indirectly involved in any activities that will negatively affect the company.
4. Any legal entity may apply. A copy of the relevant Board Resolution is required in the case of corporations. Special terms and conditions may apply.
5. The Member is independent in nature and is not in any way an employee of the company.
6. The Member should not use the Logo and Slogan of the company in any printed material including personal letters, without written approval from DXN.
7. A distributor can sell anywhere. Claiming of territory or area is not allowed.
8. An interview and full training are compulsory for any new distributor upon his/her registration; complying with the Rules & Regulations.
9. An applicant may have only one membership at a time.
10. A Member may not transfer from one upline to another, unless he/she first resigns, waits 6 months, and then applies to join another upline.
11. A Member may not attempt to recruit another member's downline, to recruit DXN members for another company, or to solicit business from another company.
12. Membership will be refused to any person who has attempted to harm the image of the company.
13. If a membership is terminated, all downlines remain in place, and all benefits pass to the immediate upline.
14. A Distributor shall not transfer, allocate, or otherwise transfer any right to any person without written approval from DXN.
Transfer of Distributorship may be necessitated through infirmity (old age) or death. Upon death the beneficiary becomes the upline.
15. Distributors are bound to follow the DXN International Code of Ethics.
16. The company reserves the right to terminate the membership of a member who violates company Rules & Regulations and/or Code of Ethics.
Such termination shall be without compensation of any kind to the member but without prejudice to the Company's right to initiate legal proceedings are deemed necessary for the recovery of any sum, for loss of prestige or goodwill suffered by the company or the said member.
17. A Distributor shall not make any false claims relating to the Product(s) or the DXN Marketing Plan.
18. A Distributor shall not make any Medical Claim for any Product nor specifically prescribe any given Product as suitable for any specific ailment, as that type of representation implies the Products are drugs rather than cosmetics or nutritionals.
Under no circumstances should any Products be likened to drug Products prescribed for treatment of specific ailments.